

CLOTHING WORKERS TO HOLD MASS MEETING

The Clothing Workers' union will hold a mass meeting Monday evening, Jan. 22, at Hod Carriers' hall, Harrison and Halsted sts., in celebration of the great victory gained by the 60,000 clothing workers of New York, who were on strike recently for the 48-hour week and increases.

The agreement reached between the workers and the American Clothiers' ass'n goes into effect Jan. 23 and calls for a 48-hour week and a $1 increase for the tailors and a $2 increase for the cutters.

Chicago clothing workers are banded together with the New York workers by the same affiliation, all being members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

The above mass meeting is also the beginning of a new organization campaign by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of Chicago. Prominent speakers will address the meeting.

Feb. 17 a dance and clothing workers' reunion will be held at the Coliseum, Wabash av. and 16th st. 15,000 clothing workers and their friends are expected to attend.

The spirit of the Chicago clothing workers is as militant as ever and is very evident in every shop. The clothing manufacturers have reasons to worry about the outcome of this campaign. The organization and workers are determined not to rest until the manufacturers recognize their rights to organize.

TOM ENRIGHT AND "SONNY" DUNNE NABBED BY POLICE

Tom Enright and "Sonny" Dunne were pinched yesterday in Burnham, according to a police report today.

The charge against them will be that they pulled a stickup and shot at policeman early yesterday. Both of them are said to be "off" newspaper slugging.

They were named in connection with the murder of "Dandy Joe" Horgarty, keeper of a gambling house, in a levee feud fight in Burnham. After the police had sought them in vain for a few days, the chase waned.

Tipped off that the pair could be found at 454 Root st., in McGrath's poolroom, a squad of police hurried there early yesterday. They arrived too late, however, for a gun battle had already taken place.

They found Dunne, wounded, standing in an alley near the poolroom. An attempt to capture him was met with a fusillade of shots and Dunne escaped.

Don't be soft at the fella who hasn't paid you the kale he borrowed six months ago. Scientists say countless germs are distributed by money and probably he is thoughtful of your health.

Gee! It must be tough for a fellow to go to work again, after his political job has went. You're out!
